Difference (total – delivered)	391	2421	- 1105	- 153	- 156	11853	- 68	94

Notes:

- The difference between the total (production + import) and the local sales is due to the stock during the month, in addition to the fact that the import figures are initial figures to be modified later on.
- As for the fuel oil, the major difference between the production and local sale represents the quantity mixed with the exported crude oil
